An art journey through Perugia and Assisi
duration: full day

A visit of the two main Umbrian cities experimenting alternative ways: to know and to examine the architectural development of the city of Perugia through the cycles of transformation of its walls and its main square.

Being able to understand the changes of the city, the role of its layout in the old and in the modern city, the symbolic purpose of the walls and the gate to the city.

The relationship city-territory, the expansion of the suburbs, the different urban traits and the different sides of the social life typical of the suburbs.

Squares and palaces, churches and monuments, in addition to a series of subtle details that allow to become involved in the historical and artistic dimension of two Umbrian jewels. Perugia and Assisi.
